

GIVES UP HOME FOR A LIFE IN LEPER COLONY

The Rev. Vincent Masoin Will Study Here a Year and Then Go to Hawaii.

IS ONLY 21 YEARS OLD.

Young Man's Father Is a Professor in the University of Lourain, Belgium.

Forfeiting home and country with the decision to devote his young life to the horrors of Hawaii's leper districts, the Rev. Vincent Masoin, a ruddy faced, jovial seminarian from the University of Lourain, Belgium, reached New York today on the Red Star liner Vaderland, bound for the colony whence no man returns.

The young priest was alone. He bade his mother and father, who is a professor at the university, a farewell at Antwerp and boarded the ship to come to Fair Haven, Conn., where he will complete his final year in theology and be ordained about next Christmas. He will then set out direct for the island of Molokai, made famous as the missionary seat of the noted Father Damien.

A Martyr to Duty.
Four years ago Father Damien died. Father Damien labored for years among the lepers until he wrote that he bore a charmed life and seemed immune from the dread disease. Suddenly he was seized by the plague and died quickly.

The new recruit is a member of the Order of the Sacred Heart. He is twenty-one years old, stalwart of frame and of a jovial nature. He entertained a party of reporters on his way up the bay with short stories of his college days, and spoke of his sacrifice as a plain matter of duty. He said he expected to get the disease, but added that the good he would accomplish would more than atone for the life he tosses away.

Accident Delays Ship.
An accident to the Vaderland on Sunday delayed the arrival of the ship more than twelve hours. A cylinder head, weighing almost a half a ton and measuring three feet in diameter, blew out during the afternoon, crashing on the engine room floor with much noise and thoroughly fracturing several base-segments who happened to be in the section of the ship. By the aid of four blocks and tackles the big cap was hoisted into place and held secure by caulking added by mats and tarpaulins. The death of twins born to Mrs. Julia Finckh the last day of the year brought much sympathy to Jacob Finckh and his wife. The infant boy and girl died New Year's day and were buried at sea. The couple are Prussians and are bound for Milwaukee.

ESCAPING GAS KILLS WOMAN OF NINETY

Breeze Extinguished Stove Flame in Room in Which
Mrs. Leech Slept.

Mrs. F. Eppida Leech, ninety years old, was found dying early today in a gas-filled room at No. 18 South Elliott street, Brooklyn. She died an hour later, after Dr. William C. Woolsey had vainly endeavored to restore her to consciousness.

Mrs. Leech was born on Staten Island, where her husband prospered as a farmer. Many years ago they went to the West, where Mr. Leech accumulated a fortune in the cattle business before he died. Mrs. Leech had been living with her daughter, Mrs. Mary Hoyt. Until a few days ago Mrs. Leech was as vigorous as a woman of middle age. She then complained of pains in her head and for two days had been confined to her room. In the room in which Mrs. Leech slept there was a gas stove. It was turned low last night, and during the night a breeze extinguished part of the flame. When Mrs. Leech awoke she found the room filled with gas.

EX-JUDGE CLINCH TO HEAR CHARGES AGAINST LEARY.

ALBANY, Jan. 7.—Gov. Hughes has appointed former Justice Edward S. Clinch, of New York City, to take testimony on the charges preferred against Superintendent of Elections William Leary by a committee of Independence League, led by Max Imboden, the defeated candidate for Sheriff last fall. Judge Clinch will probably hear the case this month.

A cheerful disposition for ten cents per week. Sweet breath, no headache, no dullness, no blues. All that—and more—in a box of Cascarets.

Cascarets supply a natural need. They simply do what some foods will do; what fruits will do, if used in abundance; what exercise does. They cause the bowel muscles to act. Their effect is as natural and gentle as the same effect from food.

If we lived out-doors, and ate whole wheat, green vegetables and fruits, we would never need Cascarets. But we don't exercise enough. We eat fine flour, much starch, and too little of fruit and green things. We live artificially, so we need an artificial laxative.

Cascarets give us, in concentrated form, one vital effect that we lack in rich food. Some people need them more frequently than others. It depends on your food, your drink and your exercise. But we all need them sometimes. The right way to take them is one Cascaret at a time. Take it just as soon as you need it. You can tell. Don't wait till night. Carry a box always with you. Ward off the dullness, the headaches. Keep yourself always at your best.

Cascarets are candy tablets. They are sold by all druggists, but never in bulk. Be sure to get the genuine, with CCC on every tablet. The price is 50 cents, 25 cents and 10 Cents per Box.
